If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within 2 working days of applying, please email recruit@nsai.ie

Selection Methods

NSAI will convene an expert board to carry out the competitive stages of the selection process to the highest standards of best practice. The approach employed may include:

- Shortlisting of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- A competitive, competency focussed, interview;
- A second-round interview (if applicable);
- Presentation/Work sample/role play/media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate; and
- Reference and online checks.

Shortlisting

Based on the number of applications received, the NSAI may in the first instance conduct a shortlisting exercise.

During any short-listing exercise that may be employed, NSAI is guided by an interview board who examines the applications and assess them against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/experience on your application.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position, NSAI will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

Interviews

The onus is on each applicant to ensure that they are in receipt of all communications from NSAI. Candidates should make themselves available on the date(s) specified by NSAI and should make sure that their contact details specified on their application are correct. NSAI will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates for attendance at interview.

Panel

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it, NSAI may at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment from a panel established for this purpose. Candidates will be placed on the panel in order of merit. Any panel created will expire after a designated period from its establishment (usually six months). Placement on a panel is for the purpose of filling this appointment, candidates not appointed at the expiry of the panel will have no claim to this post thereafter.

NSAI Recruitment and Selection Review Process

In relation to all NSAI recruitment campaigns, Human Resources (HR) take all necessary steps to ensure a fair, open and transparent appointment process that produces a quality outcome and commands public confidence. HR also abides by the core recruitment principles of probity, equity and fairness, selection based on merit, and best practice, which are observed in all NSAI recruitment processes. All appointments made will also comply with relevant employment and equality legislation, and all candidates will be treated fairly, to a consistent standard and in a consistent manner.

Stage One Review: When a request for a review of a selection decision is received from a candidate every effort is made to resolve the matter at Stage One by e.g. providing feedback to the candidate. The Stage One Review process may be availed of within five working days of notification of the initial decision and should normally take place between the candidate and the person who communicated the decision.

HR will carry out the Stage One Review without delay and within a period of time that enables the candidate to avail of the Stage Two Review procedures within the specified timelines should he/she so wish. Where a candidate remains dissatisfied following a Stage One Review, he/she may adopt the Stage Two procedures set out below. If the candidate wishes the matter to be dealt with by way of a Stage Two Review, he/she must notify HR within two working days of the notification of the outcome of the Stage One review. Recruitment and selection processes will not be suspended pending the outcome of a review.

Stage Two Review: The candidate must address his/her concerns in relation to the process in writing to the Head of HR, setting out those aspects of the action or decision in relation to his/her candidature that he/she wishes to have reviewed.

The candidate must support their request for review by outlining the facts they believe show the action/decision taken was wrong. A request for review may be refused if the candidate cannot support their request.

The case will be reviewed by a person other than any individual directly associated with the decision in question. The person(s) conducting the Stage Two Review will consider any written submissions made by the candidate, and all other relevant information, including any relevant e-mails, notes or memoranda held by HR in respect of the selection process. Where necessary, the reviewer may meet with the personnel involved in the selection process and/or the candidate for the purpose of eliciting further information. The outcome will generally be notified to the candidate within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint or request for review. Where the investigation does not allow a decision within this timeframe, the reviewer will keep the candidate informed of the status of the review. The decision of the Stage Two reviewer is final.

Candidates' Rights– Review Procedures in relation to the Selection Process

NSAI will consider requests for review in accordance with its Recruitment & Selection Policy.

Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other selection processes when and where required by NSAI, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as NSAI require in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Principal Conditions of Service

No additional payment will be made for extra attendance as the rate of remuneration payable covers any exceptional extra attendance liability that may arise from time to time.

Tenure

The appointment will be on a full-time basis. The appointee must serve a probationary period, which lasts for 12 months. Should the appointee's service be satisfactory with regards to health, conduct, and efficiency generally during the probationary period, the appointee, on completion of the period will be finally appointed. Should the appointee's services be unsatisfactory, the appointment may be terminated at any time during the period.

Location

Bishopstown, Cork T12 This position will be based at NSAI Legal Metrology regional office, Rossa Avenue, YA37.

Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest

Employees are prohibited from having any personal or financial interest in any industry that NSAI certifies from the date of appointment with the NSAI. Employees are prohibited from disclosing any information in relation to the business of any person obtained in his/her capacity as an officer of the NSAI.

Superannuation and Retirement

The appointee will be offered public service pension terms and retirement age conditions in accordance with pension arrangements in NSAI depending on the status of the successful appointee:

a) In general, an individual who has no prior pensionable Public Service history in the 26 weeks prior to appointment will be a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (Single Scheme) which commenced from 1 January 2013 [Section 10 of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 refers];

b) An individual who was a member of a "pre-existing public service pension scheme" as construed by the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 and who does not qualify for membership of the Single Scheme will have standard public service pension terms reflecting new entrant or non-new entrant status for the purposes of the Public Service Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2004.

Appointee's status for superannuation purposes

Appointees will be required to disclose their full public service history. Details of the appropriate superannuation provisions will be provided upon determination of appointee's status. The following points should be noted:

Pension Accrual

A 40-year limit on total service that can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one existing public service pension scheme will apply. This 40-year limit, which is provided for in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012 came into effect on 28 July 2012. This may have implications for any appointee who has acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment.

Pension Abatement

The Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 extended pension abatement so that a retiree's public service pension is liable to abatement on re-entering public service employment, even where the new employment is in a different area of the public service. However, if the appointee was previously employed in the Civil Service and awarded a pension under voluntary early retirement arrangements (other than the Incentivised Scheme of Early Retirement (ISER) or the Health Service Executive VER/VRS which render a person ineligible for the competition) the entitlement to payment of that pension will cease with effect from the date of reappointment.

Ill-Health Retirement

Please note that where an individual has retired from a Civil/Public Service body on the grounds of ill-health his/her pension from that employment may be subject to review in accordance with the rules of ill-health retirement within the pension scheme of that employment.

Annual Superannuation Contribution (ASC)

This appointment is subject to the ASC deduction as provided for under Part 4 of the Public Service Pay and Pensions Act 2017.

For further information in relation to public service superannuation issues please see the following website: <http://per.gov.ie/pensions>
